BREAKOUT SPEAKERS

TIM FOX

Tim Fox serves as the District Superintendent for the South Coastal District of the Wesleyan Church. In this role, Tim serves the pastors while working to help develop the churches and church plants of the district.

Tim is married to Anita, and they serve the district together while raising their busy teens, Noah and Sophia.

In 2019, Tim founded ReThink Small Conference to empower small church leaders to answer God's call through training cohorts and conferences. His first book, Rethinking Church, released from Wesleyan Publishing House in January 2021.

He attended Trevecca Nazarene University for his undergraduate studies in religion and ministry. He also completed a Masters of Arts in Religion from TNU, and earned a Doctor of Ministry degree from West Coast Bible College and Seminary.

CHRISTINE BOVÉ

Christine Bové is a dedicated leader with a profound commitment to empowering women in ministry and leadership. She holds two degrees in leadership and Christian Ministries from Indiana Wesleyan University.

Ordained as a reverend in the Wesleyan Church, South Coastal District, in July 2019, Christine's calling to ministry has been a driving force in her life. Her passion for empowering women is at the core of her mission, as she believes in coaching and encouraging women to own their spaces, no matter their sphere of influence.

Based in Atlanta, GA, Christine is happily married to Dylan Bové, and they share their home with two beloved cats.

BREAKOUT SPEAKERS

DANIEL CHAVISTA

Daniel Chavista is originally from Colombia and has served the Lord since he was 14 years old. He has served 22 years in the Wesleyan Mission in many ministry capacities, mostly worship and youth. When Daniel and his wife, Monica, of 14 years, came to Georgia, the Lord called him to work as an ordained pastor of Celebremos su Gloria Wesleyan Church in Peachtree Corners.

Daniel is an ordained minister in the South Coastal District. In addition to leading a church, he has been dictating a Bible course for a year and a half, helping with devotionals, and serving as an academic coordinator.

TROY EVANS

In 1995, Troy, a former gang leader, left the street life to become a Disciple of Jesus while living in Detroit. He married Dawn, and they share 4 biological and 4 non-biological children. He moved from selling drugs and violence to starting a professional career as an IT Engineer and later was the owner of an IT and marketing company. During his time in the marketing industry, he provided services for several international recording artists and national organizations.

Troy is ordained in the Wesleyan Church and has planted and served as pastor of 4 urban churches. The EDGE Urban Church (a hip-hop church) was the first of its kind in Michigan, where he served for 14 years.
